Things you should never do in a listening lesson:

- ✓ walk around the class
- ✓ make noise
- ✓ sound demotivating
- ✓ offer no task
- ✓ be unprepared
- ✓ not to give Ss time to read the task
- ✓ ask for no peer check
- ✓ give Ss an unrelated follow-up
- ✓ play before you hand out task
- ✓ take too long before Ss start dealing with the text
- ✓ design a grammar task instead of a comprehension task
- ✓ read the script in class or have Ss read it out loud

CELTA 2014

Teaching Receptive Skills

Listening

UP
LANGUAGE CONSULTANTS
Good
Teaching
Practice
Making Teaching Easier

a Scottish National Gallery
b
JOHN KNOX HOUSE
John Knox's House
c
The Royal Mile
d
Holyrood Palace
e
Edinburgh Castle
UP
LANGUAGE
CONSULTANTS
Good
Teaching
Practice
Making Teaching Easier

nice place outside Brazil

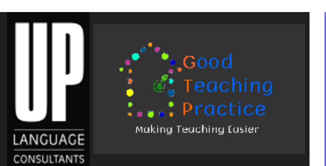

like about it

didn't like about it

visit Britain

what to see in Britain

adapted from New Cutting Edge Elementary

Teaching Systems-Grammar

Staging of a grammar lesson:

1. Lead-in

2. Clarification (MPF)

3. Practice:
    a. Controlled
    b. Semi-controlled
    c. Freer

4. Feedback

Receptive Skills - Listening

Staging of a listening lesson:

1. Lead-in

2. Pre-teaching of lexis

3. Text:
    a. Set the scene
    b. Gist question
    c. Specific question

4. Follow-up (reaction)

5. Feedback

UP
LANGUAGE
CONSULTANTS
Good
Teaching
Practice
Making Teaching Easier